Fine.

Another batch of strike cases were disposed of by 'Squire Graves in the Police Court vesterday morning. William N. Heath said he was a railroad man and happened to have a torpedo in his pocket; he happened to cross a street car track and the torpedo happened to fall out of his pocket on to the edge of the track. A car didn't happen to pass at the time, but a soldier happened to see the torpedo, and Mr. Heath and a $5 bill became total strangers.

Joe Howard, colored, said something about a scab, and it cost him $5.

C. R. Dean uttered the word scab, but he explained that he held no animosity against any one, and then he threw himself upon the mercy of the court.

WAS ALLOWED TO GO.

The court was merciful, and Dean was permitted to go without being compelled to pay a fine.

The most interesting case of all was that of W. B. Wright, a nice looking young fellow, who was on the pay roll of the Passenger and Power Company up to the time of the strike as a conductor on the Main Street line.

Wright was charged with throwing a rock at a car in Fulton. Two soldlers saw him do it and arrested him. and he was turned over to Captain Carter Braxton. The latter testified that Wright confessed to him that he threw the rock and was sorry for it, and that he offered to give him some money if he would let him off.

Squire Graves hated to do it, but he fined Wright $19 and gave him sixty days. An appeal was taken.

K.M. Baker was charged with throwing a rick, and when he was searched a pletd was found in his pocket. The case was continued to next Tuesday for witches.

John Norvell was dismissed of the charje of throwing a rock at a Laurel Street car at Fourth and Broad Streets, because there was an element of doubt.

Thimas Conguer was fined $10 for using had anguage on a car. He is an employe of the company, and the defense was that he was joking with other men on the iar. An appeal was noted.

G.W. Clark was dismissed of the charge of siling liquor after 5 o'clock on Saturday night, when all the bars had been ordeed closed.

A number of plain drunks were disposed of as usual.

The fact that there has been no case The fact that there has been no case of serious sickness there in several years that could be traced either directly or indirectly to any local cause or condition is conclusive proof that Mr. Guigon spoke hastily and unadvisedly, not knowing whereof he spoke.

The fall is badly ventilated, but the blame for that is to be laid to the architects and constructors.

Committee.

There will be a joint meeting of the Board of Aldermen and Common Council at 8 o'clock to-night to transact important business. The joint assembly is called to elect a police commissioner for Clay Ward, to succeed Mr. John F. Jacob, resigned, and another from Madison Ward, to succeed Mr. C. G. Bosher, who declines a re-election.

The body will also elect a fire commissioner to succeed Captain L. C. Jenkins, of Lee Ward, and it is understood that the incumbent will have no opposition. Mr. Charles U. Williams, Jr., has been nominated by a majority of the Madison Ward delegation to succeed Mr. Bosher, but there is another candidate in the person of Mr. Watson M. Myers. It is not known that there are any svowed candidates for Mr. Jacob's seat in the Police Board.

The joint meeting will also elect members of the Plumbing Board and one member of the Committee on James River Improvement from the citizens' class. After this meeting the special joint committee of investigation will meet and receive the report of their findings in the Councilmanic matter, which is now being formulated by City Attorney Pollard and Chairman John B. Minor. This report will not be made public in detail until it is laid before the Council on Monday night, though it will almost certainly vindicate all those named save John M. King.

The committee will likely not go into next week. the Locomotive Works.

Mr. H. A. Gillis, general superintendent of the American Locomotive Works, writes the following letter to The Times-Dispatch:

I note in The Opinion, the organ of the street-car men, that a statement is made that some one from the Governor's office 'phoned to these works requesting that the employes be not paid off on last Saturday, as they were liable to spend their money in whiskey and fire-arms.

So far as I have been able to spectrain there is absolutely no foundation for this statement, as no such message was ever received at these works. It is due to our employes to say that there is probably no more sober and steady set of men in Richmond than they are. A great many of them own their own homes, and all of them, I believe, are law-ablding cittens. I feel it only justice to both the Governor and the men to say that no sauch request was made by any person to my knowledge. 444444444444444444444444

The news came in the shape of a letter from Atlanta and it stated that the resignation would be laid before the boat at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The announcement came as a great surprise, and was widely discussed in Baptist circles here yesterday.

Dr. McConnell is widely known and greatly beloved in this section of the world. He left the First Baptist Church, of Lynchburg, about two years ago to become secretary of the Home Mission Board, and he has been very successful in the work. The call to the Calvary Church was recently extended to him, but it was generally thought would be declined. No names are being mentioned yet in connection with the Home Mission secretaryship.

Should Exclude Them.

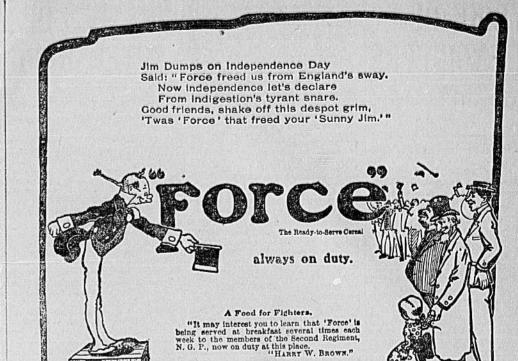

The Christian Advocate of this city thinks the railroads and steamship lines should exclude all card-playing and drinking on their trains and boats.

The remark by the Advocate is called forth by the action of the Pennsylvania Railroad in taking action in this direction. It reproduces from a northern religious paper a clipping making reference to the matter, and then adds for itself:

"A similar regulation should be adopted by every railroad and steamboat line in the country. It would not only remove a great nuisance from the traveling public, but also a most dangerous form of temptation." (From the Onaga, Kans. Herald.)
